

Leroi Jones

(Playscript): The Leroi Jones Plays: "The Slave" and "The Toilet"

New York: The L-J-P Company [Leroi Jones Production Company?] c/o Litvinoff & Singer, Attys.
[1965 or 1966]

$4500

Quarto. 30;
20 leaves
mimeographed
rectos only. Blank
blue leaf before
each separate title
page. Screw-bound green flexible wrappers titled in gold. Handwritten control number ("#51") on title-
leaf. Moderate edge wear on
the wrappers,
internally fine,
overall near fine.

THE LEROI JONES PLAYS

"THE SLAVE"

AND

"THE TOILET"

Jones' short plays were performed in several combinations, at many venues, often to much controversy, but curiously these two plays seem seldom to have been performed together. We found notice of performance of these two plays performed together at Concept East theatre in Detroit in December 1965 or January 1966, during which time the theatre was shut down for obscenity and, at least temporarily, lost its license to hold performances. Jones changed his name to Amiri Baraka in 1965, thus combined with the Detroit performance, our attribution of a possible date.

OCLC locates no copies of this script.

[BTC#435107]

THE SLAVE

(A Fable)

by

LEROI JONES

THE TOILET

(A Play in One Act)

by

LEROI JONES