

Elias Blake, Jr. and Henry Cobb

Black Studies: Issues in Their Institutional Survival. Final Report

Washington, DC.: Institute for Services to Education 1974

$300

First edition. Quarto. 50pp. plus laid in are a cover letter, four leaves of additional conclusions, and an errata sheet. Stapled illustrated wrappers. Fine. In 1972 the Institute for Services to Education formed the Task Force Group of Survey of Afro-American Studies Programs made up largely of academics from traditional black colleges. OCLC appears to identify only digital copies. [\[BTC#436596\]](#)

FINAL REPORT

BLACK STUDIES: ISSUES IN THEIR INSTITUTIONAL SURVIVAL

Principal Investigators

Elias Blake, Jr.
Henry Cobb

TASK FORCE GROUP

For

Survey of Afro-American Studies Programs

Henry Cobb, Chairman

Tobe Johnson
Martin Kilson
Jewel Prestage

Assisting Staff

Robert Moran
Shelby Smith

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH,
EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Office of Education
Black Concerns Staff
Contract No. OEC-71-4693