

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

Gads Hill Place,
Wingham by Rochester, Kent.

Monday 12th Nov 1848

Dear Sir

I do so to thank the interesting the subject which you so ably present my attention, especially. Will it suit your convenience to be to me with you, next Saturday, to some of the places where you have been most impressed? what you have seen?

If so, and they kindness to let me know at what hour you would you will call for me at the office of Messrs. James Rowland & Co. Wellington Street Strand. You will make your own appointment, I will spare myself a hour or two.

Dear Sir

I am, Sir, very truly Yours
John Murray

Gad's Hill Place,
Higham by Rochester, Kent.

Monday Sixteenth November 1858

Dear Sir

I shall be glad to investigate the subject to which you so obligingly invite my attention, myself. Will it suit your convenience to take me with you, next Saturday, to some of the places where you have been most impressed by what you have seen?

If so, have the kindness to let me know at what hour on Saturday you will call for me at the office of "All the Year Round," 26 Wellington Street Strand. If you will make your own appointment, I will place myself at your disposal.

Dear Sir

Faithfully yours
Charles Dickens

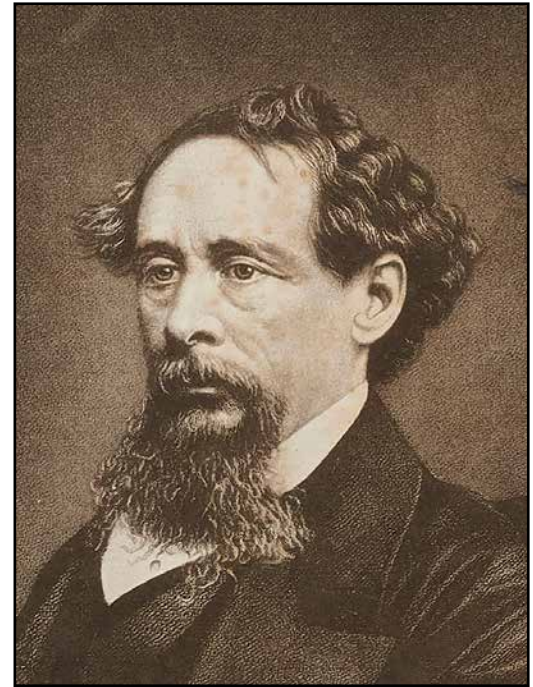

Dr. John Murray

Charles Dickens
Autograph Letter Signed to Doctor John Murray

Higham by Rocester, Kent: November 16, 1858

$2800

Autograph Letter Signed from Charles Dickens to Dr. John Murray. The note is on Dickens' imprinted Gad's Hill Place stationary and dated November 16, 1858. Matted to 4¼" x 6½" and glazed and framed with a portrait of Dickens accompanying the letter. Unexamined out of frame but appears near fine. Text of the note in full: "I shall be glad to investigate the subject to which you so obligingly invite my attention, myself. Will it suit your convenience to take me with you, next Saturday, to some of the places where you have been most impressed by what you have seen? If so, have the kindness to let me know at what hour on Saturday you will call for me at the office of All the Year Round...If you will make your own appointment, I will place myself at your disposal." The frame has an old Paul C. Richards Autographs label and description on the verso. [BTC#436873]