

William Allan Lasseter

Afterglo

[Oakland, Ca.?]: William Allan Lasseter [circa 1980]

$250

First edition. Octavo. 24pp.
Concrete poetry by a black man, mostly about family.
Inscribed by the author using the name Emome (as he notes in a note tot he reader.
OCLC locates two copies.

[BTC#436884]

AFTERglo

by

William Allan Lasseter
@ TXu-100-826
@ TXu-49-709

All rights reserved (415) 832-5085

To my Daughter DONNA and my first son SEAN

To Walter
From Emma E.
Changing Idea
8-2-91

TO my second son Justin

As the petals form the flowers and the bark hugs the trees
As the brook becomes the river and the river becomes the sea
that's how close you are to ME.