

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

Helen Hooven Santmyer

The Fierce Dispute

Boston / NY: Houghton Mifflin Company 1929

First edition. Fine in a lightly worn, near fine dustwrapper with small nicks at the edges of the crown. Nicely Inscribed by the author, apparently contemporary with publication: "To Miriam, In remembrance of the day she didn't go to Rye and we came back from Winchester and found her. Helen H. Santmyer." The author's second book, published 55 years before she became an overnight success with her mammoth bestseller ...And Ladies of the Club in 1984. Very scarce, especially inscribed. [BTC#66015]

To Miriam

In remembrance of the day she didn't go to Rye and we came back from Winchester and found her.

Helen H. Santmyer