Ann as A. Bannon

Odd Girl Out

Greenwich CT: Fawcett Gold Medal (1957)

First edition. Paperback original. A long, thin rubbed spot on the front wrap, and a little light creasing to the rear wrap, a very good, or a little bit better copy. Signed by the author on the title page. The author's first book, something of a classic of lesbian fiction. Bannon wrote a handful of novels on lesbian themes, and then retired from the writing scene to become a successful (and for a time married) college administrator. Her books, all paperback originals, have been released by the Cleis Press in their series of lesbian pulp fiction classics. [\[BTC#76529\]](#)
